My thesis in 180 seconds

Younès FAYDI, PhD student in wood material and machining at LaBoMaP, Arts et Métiers ParisTech campus of Cluny, participated in the “Ma these en 180 secondes” (“My thesis in 180 seconds”) competition. “Ma these en 180 secondes” allows PhD students to present their research subjects, with straightforward terms, to a diversifying public during 3 minutes . Last 15th of April, at the “Grand Amphi” of Arts et Métiers ParisTech campus of Paris, took place the HeSam final of the competition. Younès won the audience price and the jury price with the subject “Mechanical grading of hard wood”. Younès has been qualified for the national final which took place in Bordeaux last 31st of May. Unfortunately, he didn’t finish on the podium but his performance was acclaimed by the audience, he managed to share his freshness and his good mood!
